Offshore Patrol & Security is the largest international conference and exhibition dedicated to the OPV and maritime security sector. The conference attracts more than 250 delegates each year and operates alongside a customer centric exhibition designed to highlight the latest developments in technology and provide a perfect facility for networking. Held each year at the Royal Navy Dockyard in Portsmouth, UK, it is the most important event for all organisations targeting this market.

We are committed to providing our customers with a sponsorship package that suits their needs and delivers their objectives whilst proving value for money. Below are some of our more popular packages, however, if you would like a more bespoke package then let us know. All packages include associated branding on the event website, marketing material, delegate brochure and on site at the event venue.
